EXHIBIT F
(Morris's June 23, 2009 letter to Lang)

SARAH MORRIS

June 23, 2009

Dear Mr. Lang,

Thank you for your April letter which the gallery in Berlin showed to me. I apologize for the slow response. I have been traveling all spring and working round the clock to finish up several wall painting projects and my exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art, Frankfurt.

I am very disappointed to hear that you are unhappy with some of my "Origami" paintings. While it is true that I referred to some of your instructions as inspiration for my paintings, I think that any fair observer would acknowledge that I have radically transformed them in the course of my work. Further, your diagrams are created and distributed to serve a purely practical, instructional function [i.e. to be folded into three dimensional origami objects, thereby "erasing" the original diagram]; my paintings obviously have a much different purpose and meaning. My paintings are treating the idea of Origami as an instruction and the idea of Origami as a sign or a harbinger of something to come.

I am confident that if you saw the paintings you would understand and appreciate this difference.

Very Best wishes,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized 'S' and 'M' followed by a horizontal line.
